

Simon & Judith Hill have a house in Fore Street, but have been doing VSO work in Nepal for the last twelve months. They get the e-letter on a regular basis , and they publish a fascinating blog which tells how they are getting on. They were near the epicentre of the earthquake when it happened, but mercifully they are safe and the immediately surrounding area was not too badly damaged. Their blog tells all-and has terrific pictures. Click on image above, taken by Simon and Judith showing typical damage around them.
