

Hi All,

I have got this week's e-letter out a bit earlier than usual to remind you of three events taking place this weekend.

Tomorrow afternoon (Saturday 5th December) is the School's Christmas Fair, and on Sunday evening (6th December) at 6.30 the Christmas Tree at Market Cross is having its lights switched on amid various festivities. At 10.30am on the same day (Sunday), the Christingle service will take place in St. Stephen's Church at 10.30am-all are very welcome.

Lots of other things happening this week; to ensure you don't miss anything, click on the Winsham Christmas Calendar link below and browse. If you want to be driven mad by our catchy Christmas jingle, make sure you have the sound turned up!

Over the next few days the Parish Web Site is undergoing some substantial changes, so if access to some of the quieter areas is a bit dysfunctional, please accept my apologies. It won't be for long. The reason for this is that the new Winsham Parish Council Web Site is being launched (we hope!) very soon, so I have been encouraged to give the Parish Web site a good seeing to, in readiness for the appearance of the 'new kid on the block!' I have seen the new site in preview form, and very smart it looks, and will do an important job. What that is will be self evident when you see it. It will be edited and operated by Teresa Pinder, our Parish Clerk. More about this important addition to 'Winsham on the Web' when it appears on-line.

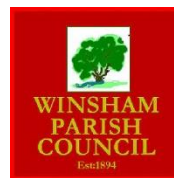

Another good bit of news is that Winsham is going to get its own defibrillator, which will reside on an outside wall of 'The Bell'. This is the brainchild of Rosie Clampett, and with the help of others, including Cllr. Diana Wallbridge, has brought the whole matter to a successful conclusion-apart for the need for some fund raising and training. To find out more, see the e-letter below.

John

We mentioned last week that Marj Fowler would be 90years of age on the 2nd December. The Jubilee Hall Management Committee had a meeting on the 30th of November and it was decided to hold a little celebration for her before it started. Marj has been a committee member for nearly 50 years. Is this a record for a village hall trustee? She has been part of a lot of change!.
