

Hi All,

The highlight of this week was the fund raising organised by the Family Circle Group associated with St.Stephen's, in aid of the Tower Restoration Fund. See more details below, in the e-letter.

If you enjoy the History Tours which were part of the event, and you want to remind yourself of what was said, or like to know more about Winsham's 'more than a millennium' history, browse Winsham Web Museum.

Next week 'Last Night of the Proms' , also organised also for the Tower Fund is being run in the Jubilee Hall-click on the link below.

We are very close to the 400th edition of the e-letter. Do you have any ideas as to how it might be improved? We might be able to mark the edition with a few new ideas. Just click on the 'reply' button on your menu bar, and let me have your ideas!

John

PS-DON'T FORGET THE ROADWORKS THAT ARE DUE TO BEGIN IN THE CENTRE OF CHARD THIS COMING MONDAY, 7th SEPTEMBER AND DUE TO LAST FOR FORTY DAYS. FOR BUS USERS, THE SITUATION LEAVES POTENTIAL FOR DELAYS EXACERBATED BY OTHER ROAD WORKS IN YEOVIL.

Go to Winsham's Facebook page, and the Winsham 'Twitter 'feed for the very latest of information on many parish topics ,and a lot more too!

Have you seen 'Smudge'?

Smudge is missing from 4 Western Way. She is a neutered female, about seven years old, black and white with a white chin and a distinctive black 'smudge'. Missing since Thursday.

Take a picture of your pet-you never know when you will wish you had! The Winsham's e- letter and social media will always help in finding missing pets.

The St. Stephen's fund raising event held this afternoon was a great success. It included History tours of the village's main streets, visits to the top of the tower, and delicious cream teas. Organised by the Family Circle Group, it demonstrated how successful new ideas can be. Next Saturday is another example of new ideas-'Last Night of the Proms'. Don't forget to bring your Union Jack flag!
