

Hi all,

What a week! The highlight was the way in which 'Team Winsham' turned out to the SSDC Area West meeting at the Guildhall in Chard to support Tony and Elaine's Retrospective planning application, which was successful. A real demonstration of community support, not just by the people who turned up but also all those who wrote letters.

I was gently 'ticked -off' by Anne Rose, for forgetting to put something in the e-letter about the very successful Harvest Festival Supper-I am making amends by putting in a picture below. It was a very good evening, especially if you enjoy Gilbert & Sullivan. The food was fantastic-I had a double helping of Cottage Pie and Fruit Crumble with cream.

The Jazz Concert held last night was also a real success and about seventy people turned out for a very enjoyable evening of jazz by local group the Sunset Cafe Hot Four. St. Stephen's is being very active these days in raising funds for the Tower Appeal and deserve all the support you can give them

Winsham School and pre-school pupils supported the 'Wear it Pink' Charity for breast cancer on Thursday, by turning up looking very pink! The school raised £55 which was jolly good for such a small school. It is also to be congratulated in introducing the children to the importance of charitable giving and support. Well done!

This week the spot light is on the proposed village car park, associated with the current Western Way Development Planning Application. Read all about it by clicking on the link below. If you want to show your support or make comment there is also a separate link to help you.

Have a good week!

John

The Food at the Harvest Festival Supper held on Saturday, 3rd October was magnificent. The entertainment highlight was a rendering of 'Three little maids are we'. The identity of the participants is being withheld for their own protection.

Go to Winsham's Facebook page, and the Winsham 'Twitter 'feed for the very latest of information on many parish topics ,and a lot more too!A short cut to the web Museum has also been added, soon to be joined by the new Winsham Parish Council Web Site

The Sunset Cafe Hot Four delighted an audience of about seventy at St.Stephen's on Friday evening.
