

Hi all,

Last week was our 400th edition. I did not get any suggestions for improvement that I requested, but I did get a few nice e-mails saying how useful they found the e-letter, which was reassuring.

In a few weeks time, Winsham Parish Council will be launching its own web site, as this is now a legal requirement. Fortunately, there is a grant to meet most of the cost. As a result the nature of the Parish Council area of the Parish Web Site will change substantially, and among other things a lot more space will be devoted to public service announcements, and that sort of thing, as well as the statutory stuff. Teresa Pinder, our Parish Clerk will be responsible for running this site, although, of course, there will be lots of links between the two web sites, and with the e-letter. The Parish Council web site will be professionally designed, and will look very modern. In response to this the Parish Web site will undergo some re-organisation, while retaining its familiar 'retro' look and ambience.

I will be asking you shortly to let me know which parts of the Parish Web site you value most. Please help me by giving a little time to completing the survey when it appears. It will influence the re-organisation.

John

WINSHAM E-LETTER

Visitors to Winsham Cemetery this week will have seen that the Monkey Puzzle has had a prune, probably for the first time in its long life. Some of its extended branches were dying and becoming unsafe. At the same time a couple of bushes were removed. All this is the start of a programme to improve the cemetery's appearance and facilities, likely to extend over the next few year, as funds allow.
