

Hi All,

The problems reported last week with regard to the presentation of the e-letter on the carrier e-mail have not been reconciled, despite hours being spent on the problem. Even preparing the e-letter on another computer has not solved the difficulty. So for the time being it will be sent as a .pdf file, with a link to it at the foot of this e-mail. In truth it makes little difference, except that you just have an extra left click before all is revealed. If a solution does emerge, then I will offer both options.

This week, along with items of general coming events, there are two new editorial features-another profile, and the start of hopefully regular general interest stories relating to Winsham Shop, from Rita Miller.

Read on-it's worth the extra click! Lots of 'red' items!

Enjoy!

John

The first 'Profile' appeared a month ago, and the idea is developing. Our second profile is of Nancy Bailiff, written by Deb Harris, who also took this lovely picture a few days ago. You can read it by clicking on the picture. We hope the idea will become a regular feature of the web site, so if you are asked to take part, please do. Nothing is published without your approval.
