

Hi All,

Just recovering from eating too much at yesterday evening's Harvest Supper. What a spread. It was well attended, but I am always surprised that it is not packed out. After all, you can always record 'Strictly Come Dancing' ! Why miss an excellent meal and good company?

You will all be pleased to know that the Winsham Calendar is on its way, and it is expected to have supplies in the Shop for sale at the beginning of November. Click on the link below for details and a sneak preview of the cover. Those of us involved with its production think it is one of the best so far, and it is a good idea to pre-order yours to avoid delays with re-prints, etc.

A new feature of the Parish Web Site is a new school page. It can be accessed from the Parish Web Site Home Page, by clicking on the picture of the school, or from the Notice board. Its aim is to bring together all the news sources about the school, including the Joint Parish Magazine, into one place. Click on the link and see for yourself.

There are also a number of items a few weeks into the future that you may wish to put into your diaries, including a visit from the Three Valleys Male Voice Choir.

Did you have a 'Pop-Up' pizza on Friday. Jan and I did. Delicious-we both hope they pop-up again soon.

John

PS. The pictures of the 2016 Street Fair can now be found in the Street Fair section in the 'Winsham at Play' section of the Winsham Web Museum.

Yesterday evening the St. Stephen's Church Council hosted the Harvest Festival Supper at the Jubilee Hall. This is always such a nice event. Home cooked food which was way beyond delicious, and home cooked entertainment, which if not as good as the food (how could it be)was a wonderful demonstration of how simple humour performed before friends can be so appreciated.
