

Hi All,

The important news this week is the publication of the long awaited Bus Timetable, which starts on June 13th-not auspicious, but at least it is not a Friday!. Our new bus service is No.96, so if you wait for a No.99 to turn-up ,you will be in for a long one! It will be run by South West Coaches. Our consultant, Trish Baxter, guru on all matters relating to local bus services has not yet to give her expert analysis, but I expect to get her views fairly soon. Meantime you will find a link to the new timetable in the e-letter below.

Incidentally you could have learned about the new timetable some five days earlier if you visited the Winsham Facebook page. I mention this as the way to stay really up to speed on Winsham matters is to visit all the elements of Winsham on the Web on a regular basis-Facebook, Twitter, and both the Parish and Parish Council web sites, using the links below, and which are to be found in various places on the web sites. No irritating passwords are needed to gain access. Just left click on the icon. Don't just wait for the e-letter.

New picture on the Parish Notice board, sent in by Lucie Jirackova of Court Farm, and also the Adult's Organisations page on the Parish Web site has been updated.

A lot of people turned up for the Jubilee Cafe on Thursday-this regular event-always popular- is growing in popularity even more. For me it was nice to meet-up again with Guy and Roberta Piza from Pennsylvania (USA), relatives of Nancy Bailiff . Guy and Roberta get the e-letter every week, and claim that they know more about what is going on in Winsham than does Nancy! We have a number of overseas readers who get the e-letter on a regular basis, and they find it a good way to keep in touch.

John

PS Don't forget to go along to St.Stephen's Coffee Morning on Wednesday, in support of the Tower Appeal

PPS Winsham School Half-term break starts on Monday week.

I was stuck for a picture this week, but with the lovely Spring weather earlier this week I took a picture of a part of our garden, which for me, said 'Spring'- everything bursting into growth. Send me pictures of your garden that you especially like and if the opportunity arises , I will publish them
