

Hi All,

July seems to be the month for Quizzes, with two on the go at the same time. Why not-gives the little grey cells a bit of exercise. I hope they are both well supported.

Lots of new pictures taken last week at the Street Fair are now on the web site, mostly taken by Deborah Harris, which really capture the spirit of the event.

We also have a Parish Council Meeting on Wednesday, where the recently regenerated council have an interesting agenda in front of them. All are welcome to attend the Public Forum that takes place just before the start of the official meeting, which enables residents to have their say. More information relating to many Parish Council matters can be found on the official Parish Council web site, which can be reached by clicking on the site logo below.

Have a good week!

John

The few pictures that appeared within twenty four hours of the Street Fair 2016 have been greatly increased by the efforts of Deborah Harris, who took on the roll, of the Street Fair's own photographer. The results are great, and the new combined collection can be seen by clicking on the picture above. Deborah, an art teacher, who has done some terrific work with the children at Winsham School in the last year also played a major part in creating the 'Christ the Redeemer' statue in the St.Stephen's Church Yard.
