

Hi All,

The e-letter is a bit late this week. I delayed it because I wanted to include a picture of the Three Valleys Male Voice Choir who gave a wonderful performance at St. Stephen's on Sunday afternoon. It was Jim Paull who brought the choir to Winsham. Jim has a long family connection with the village, living in the village, and going to Winsham School, and being a choirboy at St.Stephen's. His grandfather, J.H Paull wrote the book 'The Winsham I Remember', the internet version of which can be found on the Winsham Web Museum.

A message from Jenny Clampett , the editor of the Joint Parish Magazine. The copy date for the January edition is the 1st December. Adding to this I would like to remind everyone that the Christmas Diary Web Page will be appearing on the Parish Web Site from mid - November, so please send to me details of events that you would like to be included as soon as possible.

As a general rule, with regard to any other items for the e-letter, please try to get the information to me no later than the Thursday before the weekend that you would like it published. This helps my blood pressure. Sometimes quite a lot of work is involved and the more time I have the better.

I also noticed in the Parish Magazine that the Street Fair Committee is starting a sub-committee to run the annual village Christmas Tree event, and is looking for volunteers. The lighting -up of the Christmas Tree marks, for many, the start of the Winsham Christmas, and it would be a shame if it was allowed to die for want of a few extra people giving a hand. Read the article on p.11 in the Parish Magazine , and give the secretary a call on 30184 if you would like to help.

John
