

Hi All,

What a dreadful four weeks we have had. Two terrorist attacks, and then the awful fire in London. And this is to say nothing about what has happened earlier, and in Europe as well. Our thoughts and prayers must go out for all those who are suffering as a result of these tragedies.

Here in Winsham, as always, our community is pushed on, and there is lots of interesting information about what is going on to be found in the e-letter.

Last week I warned of problems with the Parish Web site, but these have now been resolved (I hope!). While doing this I have tidied up some of the pages, and added some new pictures. If you do find any problems, please let me know. There is also a new item for the Winsham Web Museum, and you can access it from the e-letter below. I have also loaded the back numbers of the e-letter onto the museum.

John

PS The school has some interesting projects on the go. Please support them if you can. The School News letter has also made a reappearance of the Parish Web Site. after a three month absence.

A lovely picture from Liz Earl taken this week of two Woodpeckers having a feast at her bird-feeder. Have you seen her nature diary at Winsham Web Museum? If not, click on the picture.
