

Hi All,

No e-letter last week, as there was very little that was new, and I was still having some problems with the Internet connection.

No such problems this week.

The first item is however a little unusual. Ivor Hyde, who, you will remember, played the accordion , along with Tony Meech at the piano, at the Parish Council 120th Anniversary celebration in December, 2014. Ivor , who is now turned ninety, played with the Courtney band in 1939, when he was 13. He learned the Winsham Schottische. It was used as a Barn Dance. His plan is to let me have the musical notation so that it can be placed on the Winsham Web Museum web site, so that future musicians can play it . Meanwhile , his son Philip made a video and placed it on YouTube. If you click on the link HERE you can hear it for yourself-remember to have your sound turned up! He also plays some other tunes. Absolutely amazing.

For those of you who mainly use Facebook, each week you will now be able to access the e-letter direct. You can also access the e-letter from the Homepage of the Winsham Parish Web Site. Also, please use the Winsham Facebook page to upload any news, picture or details of events that you think will be of interest to Winsham residents.

Winsham Broadband speeds are not generally as good as they should be. Follow the latest news from the link below!

Finally, please support the Winsham School Quiz night on 25th March. Details are below.

John

The two events organised last week by Judith and Simon Hill in aid of medical treatment for little Aaliya, a Nepalese girl suffering from Leukaemia were a tremendous success. Together they raised £1,347, which will be a tremendous help. Simon and Judith thank everyone involved for their support.
