A big event of the coming week is the Annual Exhibition presented by Winsham Art Club. Held every year since the mid-sixties of the last century, Winsham continues to attract an extraordinary amount of artistic talent, and the Exhibition is well worth a visit.

Hi All,

This is the 500th edition of the E-letter. It started in October 2006 with 25 subscribers. Eleven years later, over two hundred subscribers get the E-letter most weeks, and of course it can be read from the link on the Home Page of the Parish Web site. In fact the total e-letter communications is a little above the five hundred mark, as I do not number the occasional 'emergency' E-letter, sent when a pet gets lost, or something really urgent turns up. The background of the E-letter, and copies of back numbers can be found on Winsham Web Museum - click HERE.

Please continue to send in your pictures and the dates of events you would like publicising.

This edition is a busy one, with the first Christmas event being announced-it is at Wells Cathedral.

Winsham Parish Council also has a lot to say for itself.

The big events of the week are the special meeting being held at the Jubilee Hall on Wednesday- the long awaited presentation by Winsham Shop and Post Office of its plans for 'The George', if it is able to secure its purchase.

Attendance is restricted to Shop Shareholders and people who have made pledges of support, and for those who have not yet confirmed their attendance, please do as soon as possible with an e-mail to:

winshamshopkitchen@gmx.com .

A lot of people will be attending, and arrangements have to be made to ensure adequate seating is provided. The Jubilee Hall will be operating near its limits, so don't say that you were not warned! I understand that documentation will be going out to shareholders and pledgers within the next day or so.

As soon as that is over, the second important happening is the Winsham Annual Art Exhibition, organised by Winsham Art Club. This starts on Friday evening , with its preview, and carries on through the weekend. Full details can be found by clicking on the picture above or on the link below.

If you have booked a NHS medical check at the Jubilee Hall, don't forget that it is this coming Wednesday.

All the Winsham Parish Council news can be found on the Parish Council Portal Page-you just have to scroll down to find them-the latest are at the top! Phew!
