Hi All,

A small change this week, at the request of the Parish Council, who have a lot of news and information to pass on Winsham parishioners, but do not wish to submerge the usual e-letter in a sea of links and stuff that some of our usual readers might not find of interest.

They also want to tell everyone about the Quarterly Newsletter they have launched, which can be read on-line or, in printed form, can be collected at various points around the village-the Shop, Jubilee Hall, St.Stephen's, The Bell, Davies Close Community Room, etc.

How is this to be done? This week they are having their own special e-letter-devoted entirely to Winsham Parish Council matters.

It will be sent immediately after this e-letter. Enjoy! It is a precedent that will not be repeated - I only agreed to cooperate on this occasion because the Parish Councillors are a bunch of 'good eggs' who do their best and mean well! The problem is that expanding the use of e-letter could easily result in it being regarded as just more 'Spam', and its presumed value would just fall away

This e-letter (the usual) does in fact give access to a lot of what the WPC E-letter talks about.

Nothing more, at present on the future of the Shop, other than a exhortation from Paula for everyone who is investing in the Community Shares to remember that the deadline is 30th November. You can find all the details in the links from the e-letter or the Parish Web site.

I hope that everyone is going to support the Street Fair Committee's 'Night at the Races' on the 18th November. It is always a good night out. I was even talked into buying a horse - it's called 'Winsham Folly' and it is a 'cert' to win. Harriet told me, and she knows about these things. As long as I am not expected to stable the blessed thing in my garage.

Lots of other things going on too-have a look at Emma's One Night Emporium.

Regards,

John
