

WINSHAM E-LETTER

The Winsham Branch of the Royal British Legion (Ladies Section) met up for a slap-up Roast Beef Lunch on Tuesday, at 'The Bell' when I happened to be there myself. I couldn't resist taking this picture. Even luckier, there was some roast beef over so Jan and myself and our guest, Ros Duffell, up from Lyme, were also able to tuck-in too!

Hi All,

Last week I mentioned that I had been beset by software gremlins. They had the last say as only about half of Liz Earl's super Nature Diary 2017 appeared on your screens. This has now been put right. I am in negotiations with the chief gremlin and threatened him with the 'nuclear option'- a total reload of the offending software. That put the frighteners on him! Me too! Not a job I fancy. It's a big web site.

A few new items this week. Details of the next Poetry Reading Group, and details of refuse collection for this year's Bank Holidays (not Christmas).

The George project may seem to have gone quiet, but I understand that quite a lot is going on between SSDC Planning and the management of the Winsham Shop.

Questions and answers-that sort of thing. However before the application gets considered by Area West all the details will be posted on their web site and everyone will have the opportunity to comment. All taking a bit longer than hoped for-I suppose March or April will be decision time-but these things do take a while.

Had a nice note from Tom 'Bill' Nicholson who will be known to some of our older readers- he is alive and well and living in Canada. He is a regular reader of our E-Letter. He sends his best wishes to all.

That's all for now.

Cheers,

John
