

WINSHAM E-LETTER

The new play written by Ann Cook was performed to a full house on both Friday and Saturday past, and was greatly enjoyed, as well as raising money for Age Concern and St. Stephen's.

Hi All,

With the completion of the tremendous effort by Ann Cook and the Winsham Players in producing 'Just another day', and with Twelfth Night passed, and the Christmas Trees removed, I suppose we can now regard the Christmas season as well and truly over. We now are into that few weeks when things go a bit quiet, and we eagerly await the first spring flowers -I have a few daffodils making quite good progress.

If some of our readers can take some nice early flora pictures for the E-letter , I would very much like to have them for publication.

Meanwhile The Bell Inn have a Burn's Night supper on the 26th January, and the Planning Application for Winsham Shop has gone to SSDC, so we do have some things to look forward to. And don't forget to come along to the Jubilee Cafe this coming Thursday- a great opportunity for a cuppa, a nice slice of cake and a natter !

I am also working hard on the Parish Web Site to give the Market Place section a 'new look'- more about that in a week or so. If there are any small businesses in the parish who would like to know more, and perhaps take part, just drop me an e-mail, or call me. For example, I do not have any B&B entries.

Keep warm!

John
