Hi All,

Sorry the e-letter is a bit late this week. I thought it would be nice to include some of the photographs that were taken of our wonderful Street Fair.

Congratulations to all who organised it, and thanks to all who supported it by attending it. I was struck by how quickly and thoroughly Church Street had been tidied up when I was driving through at about 6pm on Saturday evening after the Fair. That is dedication!

There are lots of pictures of the event taken by Deborah Harris and myself which can be seen from the link below. Deborah has helped me out-I wasn't able to spend as much time at the Street Fair as I would have liked. In fact, there was quite a lot that I didn't see. More pictures will be appearing on the web site as the week progresses, and a full collection will be on the Winsham Web Museum in the not-to-far distant future-I will keep you informed when they are available.

The Shop Management Committee has asked me to thank all of our readers who responded to their call to write letters of support for 'the George Project'. The closing date for this was last week, and so far, over one hundred have been posted on the SSDC web site-the great majority in favour. We will now have to wait a while for a decision, but no doubt we will be kept informed as the project progresses.

Meanwhile Winsham soldiers on, with the next big event being the Winsham Horticultural Society's Annual Show at the end of August, but with lots of smaller events meanwhile.

Read the e-letter below-there is a new event for horse lovers!

John
