

WINSHAM E-LETTER

Another new idea from The Bell,

No:537

22nd July, 2018

Hi,
Things are a bit quiet at present as August approaches. It happens each year! But it looks like being a busy autumn, with the 'George Project' and the other more usual events-I always enjoy the Winsham Art Club exhibition.

Still, in the mean time, if you enjoy a good fish supper it seems that The Bell is the place to go next Friday. And, of course there is always the cricket and the start of the football season!

Good news about the concert last Saturday-it raised £600 for the displaced youngsters who get to go to Magdalen through the Refugee Council.

Sad news about Koldack-the cat that missing a couple of weeks ago-about which I sent a special e-letter . Found dead unfortunately, but it is believed from natural causes. Our condolences to Chris Hughes-losing a much loved pet is always sad.

Stay cool.

John

PS: We have some nice new pictures from Henk on the Home and Notice Board pages of our web site-take a look.
