

WINSHAM E-LETTER

With the Street Fair less than a week away, I thought the pictures above would remind you of earlier Fairs, which have been running since 1985. Click on the picture above to see the programme for this year's event, but click HERE to see the collection of photographs posted permanently on the Winsham Web Museum.

Hi All,

The sun continues to shine, and the forecasts indicate that the weather should be good for next Saturday' Street Fair.

The programme for the event is on the Parish Web site and on posters around the village, but the organisers have asked me to remind you of a few points.

PARKING: Main Public Parking area is in Bakersfield and the Upper Rec. There is no official space at the Court Street end of the village.

There is limited parking in the 'The Bell' car park, but there will be no access to this (in or out) during the hours of the Street Fair.

BUS SERVICE: Diverted during the day.

WINSHAM SHOP: Will be open between 8.00am-5.00pm

'THE BELL INN': Open between 10.00am-5.00pm plus Beer Festival and Hog Roast-7.00pm onwards. The Beer Festival starts on Friday evening.

Let me have your special photographs for the Parish Web site (also possibly the Winsham Web Museum) so that they can be shared with our readers.

Winsham Shop and Post Office-Planning approval for 'The George' project.

Click on the link below for all the official information from the Shop Management Committee. Unofficially I can tell you that only a few days remain for you to get your all-important comments into the Planning Department at SSDC. You can see the letters and e-mails sent to-date (well quite a few-not all have been posted on the SSDC web site) but they will be before the 26th June, which is the dead-line for your comments.

If you haven't visited the SSDC site and seen those comments already posted, click on the link below.

Good news-the parrot has been restored to its owner. Regrettably the e- letter cannot claim any credit.

John
