Hi All,

Thrice times Brrr...! Worst winter weather Jan & I have seen since we found Winsham some twenty three years ago. And thank you for the calls we have had enquiring as to our state of health and larder from kindly friends-I know that similar concerns for older and disabled people are being demonstrated all around the village and parish. What a nice thought.

The Winsham Shop and Post Office is doing sterling work in helping people, and it is at times like this when the value of a village shop is especially and most appreciated. It is very difficult for most to get into Chard or Crewkerne in conditions like this-which are likely to go on for some days, with the danger of flooding when the thaw does come-with the possibility of more disruption. Supplies to the shop may get disrupted for all the above reasons, but we will just have to bear with that.

At times like this a village shop becomes really important

Meanwhile, life goes on. The Winsham Walkers went out on their walk on Thursday morning as planned, and the Lent Lunch held at a nice, warm Jubilee Hall on Wednesday was a great success, and Spring must be just around the corner! It can't be all bad. I am waiting to get my Begonia corms into the greenhouse.

The Lent Lunch on Wednesday was a great success, raising £172 for the 'Tearfund' charity

Keep warm-we are going to watch the Snooker! My namesake is playing brilliantly Cheers,
