No.580

19th May, 2019

Hi All,

Just a few things to which I should like to draw your attention.

Winsham Street Fair Committee have published some preliminary information about the Family Fun Day they are organising on Saturday, 29th June.

You will find the link below. Sounds a lot of fun for everyone, and The Bell are organising a Cider Weekend, and a Hog Roast and music for the Saturday evening.

Exciting news for the week ahead is the Polling for the EU Parliament next Thursday, 23rd May. Extra revenue for the Jubilee Hall! Not a lot more one can say.

The damp proofing work on the rear of the hall has been completed, and the lighting and ventilation has been greatly improved. The musty smell that has haunted that area for years has disappeared. The work cost a little over £5,000, but this was met, for the most part, by 'Awards for All', who have been terrific in supporting the Jubilee Hall on several projects in recent years, including the modernising of the main windows.

Thanks to Hazel Butler who responded to my appeal for pictures in last week's edition. Her lovely picture is below, and another will be on the Parish Web Site soon. Everyone-please keep the pictures coming.

On Monday, at the request of the U3A at Crewkerne, I am giving a presentation on the history of Winsham, entitled '2000years of Winsham's History in Thirty Minutes'. If there is any interest in the parish in seeing a re-run at a later date, perhaps as part of something else, it might be possible to organise something. It is based upon material in the Winsham Web Museum.

Cheers,

John
