No.576

23rd November, 2019

Hi All,

What a splendid event the Emporium event turned out to be. Yesterday evening, despite the very inclement weather, the Jubilee Hall was packed, and no doubt lots of Christmas presents were purchased. I hope this becomes a regular part of the Winsham Christmas scene in future years.

The 'Pop-Up' Shop in the Parish Office is also proving to be a great success, and keeping things going while the refurbishment to the 'proper' shop across the road continues at great speed. Hopefully the work will be completed before Christmas.

Someone has taken some great video clips of the new concrete floor being laid. Click on the picture below to enjoy the full experience. Only one thing worries me -how did the person who took the pictures get out afterwards? Perhaps they are still there, with their feet encased in concrete. Or are their footprints imprinted, for all eternity, on the otherwise smooth surface of the fast drying cement.

I hear that the Parish Council Surgery was attended by a number of people with matters to discuss . Well done. It is just one example of the important role the Parish Council plays in our community. The next one is in January, I believe. Watch this space!

That's it for this week,

Stay dry!

John

PS. Thanks for the messages of sympathy over my software problems. Gerard de Bere sorted them out very quickly by reloading all the relevant data plus a few changes.I wish I had called on his help earlier.He sorted out a few other problems too. We can also now watch 'The Queen' on Netflix! It definately beats watching the Election news coverage!

A new feature: Each week we will dip into a part of the Winsham Web Museum .

This week: Visit the Home Page and just explore the range of topics covered. Warning! The Site map works, but is not entirely up to date. Work in progress!

*Work on the Winsham Shop and Post Office continues at speed.
