

WINSHAM E-LETTER

No.585

30th June, 2019

Hi All,

Bit late, and in a bit of a rush this week. To accommodate the pictures that were sent in or copied from Facebook, I have juggled the presentation of the e-letter a little. The Fun Day pictures are self evident, so I have not captioned them. The last picture is one taken at the Winsham Hort. Society Work Shop at Forde Abbey (or thereabouts). Both events were a great success as the pictures show. The Bell also had a great Cider Festival and Hog Roast on Saturday evening. There is a nice video clip which captures the spirit of the event, and this can be seen if you click on the Bell Facebook page, using the link below.

Coming up soon is an organ concert at St Stephen's-details below.

Chloe has also asked me to remind Cup holders from last year's Horticultural Society Show that they now need to be returned to her, without delay.

Glad the tractors have slowed down in Western Way-only one thing worse than a fast moving tractor hurtling towards or past you-it is hitting you-and that is not unknown in the parish.

Must go!

John

PS. Nearly forgot. Interesting item in Neighbourhood Watch section on keeping out buildings safe. See link below.
