

WINSHAM E-LETTER

No.586

6th July, 2019

Hi All,

The lazy, hazy days of summer are upon us-let's make the most of it!

A nice concert at St. Stephen's next weekend-with instructions to bring your own cushions! See the poster below. Turn up in good time-these events are usually well attended.

Not a lot else, apart from the A30 being closed for over a month from the 24th July near the start of the 40mph limit as you approach Chard from Cricket St. Thomas. It is to do with drainage. Click on the link below , for more details and a map.

Must go-got to water the greenhouse,

John

PS-Don't forget the Quiz Night in aid of funds for a special wheel chair for Nikos-this Saturday at the Sports and Social Club.

Concert of Music for Organ

by Ian Heavisides

Saturday 13th July at 7.30pm

in St Stephen's Church, Winsham

Admission free but a retiring collection will be taken in aid of Church Funds

Refreshments will be available

Bring your own cushion

*Don't forget your cushion or your purse.
It promises a programme of popular, classical works.*
