

WINSHAM E-LETTER

No.589

27th July, 2019

Hi All,

Phew! It has been a bit hot this week. Fortunately, for those of us who are retired, most can at least take things a little easier and stay in cool spots. Not so for the younger ones who need to earn a living, perhaps travelling or doing some sort of manual work. Working in an office in hot weather can also be unpleasant. Not everyone has an air conditioned space.

I remember only too well a number of occasions in the years before I retired, being stuck for hours on the M1 or the M5, in searing heat, no air conditioning in the car, with nothing to drink, and at least a couple of hundred miles or more to go before I reached home-and no mobile phone to call Jan to tell her I would be very late-she used to worry. So my sympathies go out to them.

Mind you, retirement has its problems too! One of mine is wondering what picture can I use for the e-letter!

What is new this week? More road works, and a change in the St. Stephen's Service rota. And the second quarter winners of the Jubilee Hall lottery. Not a lot. Seeing what is going on in the outside world, perhaps we should be grateful!

John

I have a few PV lights in the garden, which cost nothing to run.

Produce lovely effects at night.
