

WINSHAM E-LETTER

No.581

11th January,2020

Hi All,

First of all let me apologise to all the people who turned up at Winsham Shop on Monday last, hoping to get tickets for the new 'Talk at Teatime' planned for Sunday, 26 January, at the Jubilee Hall. I must admit I had not anticipated the prompt demand, and secondly my printer had 'died' on me, after five years of loyal service. Thanks to Bryan Goodman, and his printer that works, I can assure all those interested that Winsham Shop now has an adequate supply of tickets. More details below.

Winsham is getting into gear for the New Year very quickly. The first Jubilee Cafe of the New Year will happen on Thursday. 'The Bell' has also announced its regular 'Burn's Night' celebration, with a tasty dinner, the menu including a vegetarian Haggis (as well as a conventional one)! Link this to the 'Talk at Teatime' on the following day, it's going to be a pretty busy weekend.

Also from the Winsham Shop link below you can read the latest bulletin from the Winsham Shop Management Committee. You can also reach their Facebook news from the link on that page.

Another important read is from the police-take a look at the latest telephone scam in the Neighbourhood Watch section.

...and so it rolls on! Lots more-just read the e-letter!

Also take a look at Market Place and remind yourself about the fantastic suppliers of goods and services that you have available locally. See the new advertisers.

Have a good week. Hope to see you on Thursday at the Jubilee Cafe.

John
