No.582

18th January, 2020

Hi All,

Lots going on in Winsham this coming week.

Winsham Shop is getting its new freezer and refrigerators, providing an improved facility for shoppers. Tickets for the 2020 Jubilee Hall Lottery also go on sale at Winsham Post Office on Monday, 20th January.

The Winsham Parish Survey 2020 Questionnaires have been distributed, and all we have to do is fill them in. I have done ours, on behalf of Jan and myself, and it took me about ten minutes, and it is shorter and perhaps easier to complete than the earlier survey carried out in 2013. Comparison between the results of these two important surveys will give a valuable indication of how things are changing. Please find the time to participate-without knowing what you think, how can the Winsham Parish Council act on an informed basis when considering up-dates to the Parish Plan?

Later in the week there is the Burn's Night Supper, at 'The Bell' on Friday evening, and on Sunday, 26th January, I am giving a 'Teatime Talk' on the history of Winsham at the Jubilee Hall. Just the job for those who enjoy a nice cake and a cup of tea, and those that don't know their Durotriges from their Dumnonii. Marj Fowler can be seen on a YouTube interview about her early life. All the details can be found below.

Finally, Viv Green is holding an New Studio Open Day from Noon till 5.00pm to-day. Flat 2, Paul's Ash, Ebben Lane.

Keep warm!

John
