Would YOU like to help or take part?

Hi All,

I hope you have all had a better week than I have! Nothing really dreadful has happened, when considered in the greater scheme of things, but enough went wrong to blight my general sense of well being.

Yes, you have guessed. The computer went into self destruct mode-something to do Windows 10 Operating System not liking some of the elderly files it has to work with. Probably hinting that it didn't care much for its owner either, who has a birthday next week! I call it blatant ageism-something I would not expect from Microsoft and its creations!

It got fixed eventually, taking up a lot of Gerard's time, and my cash. However , it tried to get its own back, by fiendishly distributing files all over the place, causing great confusion for me, wasting hours tracking them down.

I mention all this to you, just in case the e-letter links to the web sites do not work quite as they should.

Let me know if you experience problems. I have tested a random sample.

Despite all this the e-letter has a lot of interesting items, including a plea for help from the Street Fair Committee-it's not far away –just seventeen weeks (or thereabouts).

Enjoy.

I'm off to rest in a darkened room (and watch the snooker on the telly!).

John

PS This is the first time an e-letter has been sent on the 29th February-How exciting!
