E-LETTER

No.642

19th June 2021

Hi all,

Not a lot that is new this week, but it is full of items that I think people will be pleased to be reminded about, so I felt that an e-letter was still worthwhile. As reported last week, the Open Gardens event happens next weekend, and hopefully it will receive good support, and Scarecrow event also comes to a climax. Let's hope that the weather is kind.

Clearly the reasons for being a bit quiet are partly linked to the delay in removing the lockdown, but I also suspect that many are waiting for the autumn before things really get going again. I know that this is the ambition for the Jubilee Café.

Anyway, traditionally, things do go a bit quiet during July and August. So, let's all look forward to a good end to the year, and strong support for a bumper run up to Christmas, which we hope will really be back to normal. Winsham Horticultural Society and Winsham Art Club are setting a great springboard for this, with their end of August events.

Keep well, stay dry, and be happy,

John

PS-Stewart Binns has just had his new book 'Barbarossa and the bloodiest war in history' published. I haven't read it yet, but I have it on my Kindle-can't wait to get into it. Also, I have added back the missing pics on last weeks Open Garden's preview to the web site, plus others-take a look.

Such a nice picture of one of the Open Gardens I thought it was worth repeating from last week.

Picture by Kate Patay (our daughter!)-taken on her mobile!
