

To Autumn. Season of mists and mellow fruitfulness, Close bosom-friend of the maturing sun - John Keats

WINSHAM E-LETTER

No: 658 24th October 2021

Hi All,

I will try to keep it short!

The Play reading group have a meeting on Wednesday-link below.

The first Jubilee Café for eighteen months took place on Thursday, and I can report that the standard of the cakes remains better than ever; one chocolate confection was even liberally laced with Drambuie. Good job not many came in their cars.

The new gallery on the Winsham Web Museum dealing with the pandemic is progressing well, and it is expected to be launched early in the New Year. We have had a good response to the request for readers experiences, and we have been promised more in the near future. If you have any comments, anecdotes, information-about kind deeds or difficulties, please let me have them as soon as possible. The idea is to pass as comprehensive record as possible on to posterity.

A group of volunteers led by Judith and Simon Hill have just finished a great job on the hedges around the Allotment area; see the link below to Community Matters. Great job!

Unfortunately, I have not had any response to my request for Autumn photographs for the Parish Web site but live in the hope that some will turn up.

Don't forget the AGM of the Winsham Community Club on Monday evening. See you there. Lots of interesting things on the agenda.

Stay safe and also get the winter woollies out-it's beginning to get a bit chilly.

John

PS-Don't forget-the clocks go back at the end of next week, but not before the Halloween Party!

The Jubilee Café re-opened on Thursday,21st Oct. The cakes were as good as ever!
